

Calling all members of the Catholic Women's League of the Archdiocese of Toronto

In 2021 we will celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the founding of the Toronto Diocesan Council, which in 1921 began to bring together all the parish councils that had recently formed.

To mark this important date, we are planning various opportunities to reflect on and celebrate our first hundred years. As the months roll by, we will keep you informed of the projects and initiatives we are pursuing, but to get us started, we need a logo! So here is our challenge to all you brilliant, creative members:

Create a logo for the 100th Anniversary of the Toronto Diocesan Council.

It should include:

1. the CWL seal
2. the words "Toronto Diocesan Council"
3. the years "1921-2021"
4. a tagline or a slogan that reflects the past, present and future of the council.

This may be based on, or reflect, the new wording of the Mission Statement presented in the Strategic Plan, which will certainly be in place by 2021. It reads as follows: "The Catholic Women's League of Canada calls its members to grow in faith and to witness to the love of God through ministry and service."

We look forward to receiving your suggestions, soon.

Deadline for submission is Friday, January 4, 2019.

All submissions will be reviewed by the committee and sent to the executive of the Toronto Diocesan Council for final approval.

The winning entrant will have her registration paid for the 2019 convention, where she will be recognized as having contributed to our celebrations.

Send entries to Mary Hawkley, Chair of the TDC 100th Anniversary Committee at mahawkley@sympatico.ca . For further information, you can call 1-905-668-1644.

Let's get the celebrations started!
