

Catholic Women's League of Canada

Toronto Diocesan Council

November 18, 2020

Dear Guidance Counselor,

The Toronto Diocesan Council of the Catholic Women's League of Canada is offering a scholarship to the University of Toronto St. Michael's College. The value of this non-renewable scholarship is $3,000.00 and it would certainly help to alleviate some financial strain on the student.

The information package attached includes an explanatory letter regarding the scholarship, information about St. Michael's College, copy of the application along with a flyer. The scholarship competition closes on August 31, 2021.

Please distribute this information to any eligible female graduates in your school.

Should you have further questions I can be reached at 416-621-9703.

Your assistance in promoting this scholarship is greatly appreciated.

Yours truly,

Donna Capobianco

Announcing the 2021 Competition
University of Toronto - St. Michael's College Scholarship
Under the sponsorship of:
The Catholic Women's League of Canada
Toronto Diocesan Council

St. Michael's College is one of the seven colleges in the Faculty of Arts and Science on the St. George (downtown) campus of the University of Toronto. Every student in the Faculty of Arts and Science belongs to a college, an intellectual and social community, which provides a wide range of services and facilities to its members. Students may choose from the full range of arts and science courses, regardless of college affiliation.

St. Michael's College, in conjunction with the sponsorship and administration of the Toronto Diocesan Council of the Catholic Women's League of Canada, cooperate in awarding the CWL/St. Michael's College Scholarship. The value of this non-renewable scholarship is $3,000.

The awarding of the scholarship is based on a number of factors; eligibility, first choice of college, and high mid-average marks on admission. Financial need is a consideration.

This scholarship is open to any young woman who is of the Catholic faith, who is completing her secondary school education, and who has indicated on her application to the University of Toronto that St. Michael's College is her first college of choice. The applicant must be entering the Faculty of Arts and Science in one of the following areas of study: Commerce, Computer Science, Humanities and Social Sciences, or Sciences.

Eligible candidates must complete the attached application and submit a letter of introduction and any other supporting documentation that will demonstrate eligibility. The attached application can be photo copied. Please do not forward transcripts, as these will be part of the University of Toronto application.

To date, we have awarded many scholarships and are looking forward to assisting more young women in pursuing their post-secondary education.

We would appreciate your cooperation in bringing this information to the attention of any eligible young women in your secondary school(s) and invite them to compete for this scholarship. Closing date for applications is August 31, 2021.

Should you have any questions, please contact me by e-mail, donjoe63@sympatico.ca or at 416-621-9703 and I will be happy to return your call.

Thank you for your assistance.

UNIVERSITY OF
ST. MICHAEL'S COLLEGE
IN THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

The University of St. Michael's College was founded in 1852 by the Basilian Fathers and became a federated college with the University of Toronto in 1910. St. Michael's prides itself on fostering a diverse and inclusive community, providing students with a transformative educational experience, and maintaining a deep commitment to sustainability and social justice. By coming to St. Michael's, you will experience everything the University of Toronto has to offer, in addition to the many cultural, athletic, spiritual, and extracurricular activities that the College provides to enhance your academic career and prepare you for success throughout your life.

St. Michael's hosts undergraduate programs that draw from its historic strengths in Book and Media Studies, Celtic Studies, Christianity and Culture, and Mediaeval Studies, and provides three popular SMC One Seminar programs: the Gilson Seminar in Faith and Ideas, the Boyle Seminar in Scripts and Stories and the McLuhan Seminar in Creativity and Technology. The College also offers exceptional support and student services that include academic success learning strategists, career educators, and a wellness counsellor. Additional supports are available through the John M. Kelly Library, the second busiest library on the University of Toronto's campus.

St. Michael's is home to a vibrant and engaged student community. Throughout the academic year, student clubs enrich the community of the College by organizing and hosting a range of activities including intramural sports, theatre productions, concerts, forums on social issues as well as making volunteer opportunities available.

St. Michael's was the institutional home of legendary media theorist Marshall McLuhan, and other famous St. Michael's scholars include medievalist Etienne Gilson and French Catholic philosopher Jacques Maritain. Its alumni community includes notable Canadians such as former Prime Minister of Canada Paul Martin, current Minister of Infrastructure and Communities Honourable Catherine McKenna and CEO at Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre Dr. Andy Smith.

We welcome visits and inquiries from prospective students. If you would like more information, please contact Miranda Cheng, Associate Registrar at (416) 926-2270, or email: miranda.cheng@utoronto.ca.
