MANUAL
OF
POLICY & PROCEDURE

REVISED APRIL 2022

PURPOSE OF THE MANUAL

This Manual of Policy & Procedure is an Internal Document outlining the duties and responsibilities of all the members of Toronto Diocesan Council of The Catholic Women's League of Canada.

The aim of the Manual is to help the Council to operate more efficiently. to eliminate overlapping; to prevent the loss of certain projects because of lack of clear directions as to responsibility; to contribute to the cohesiveness of the group as a whole.

To make the best use of this Manual, please begin with the section that relates to your office or standing committee, and then review the remaining sections in order to become familiar with the work of the whole Council.

I. DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF OFFICERS

1. SPIRITUAL ADVISOR

1.1 APPOINTMENT

The diocesan spiritual advisor is appointed by the archbishop for a period of five years. The new diocesan spiritual advisor begins his term at the July executive meeting in that year.

1.2 THE ROLE OF THE SPIRITUAL ADVISOR

The Constitution & Bylaws, Part IX, Section (a) states:

- (i) The spiritual advisor, in cooperation with the chairperson of spiritual development, shall provide advice and guidance for the spiritual program. (Part VI)
- (ii) The spiritual advisor shall receive due notice of all executive and council meetings and conventions and shall attend and participate in all such meetings and conventions, when possible, in an advisory capacity.

1.3 RESOURCE MATERIAL

The diocesan president shall provide a copy of the Handbook for Spiritual Advisors, as well as all other resource material; i.e., Constitution & Bylaws, National and Diocesan Manuals of Policy & Procedure, subscription to The Canadian League magazine, Toronto Diocesan Newsletter and Guidelines for Spiritual Advisors provided by both the Ontario Provincial and National Councils, so that he may become knowledgeable of the structure of the League and aware of the League as a diocesan, provincial and national organization.

1.4 DUTIES

- a. Prepare a message for diocesan newsletter (three issues per year).
Refer to Newsletter Guidelines, page 47.
- b. Prepare a message for diocesan annual report book by date set by organization chair.
- c. Attend diocesan executive meetings and resolutions meetings.*
- d. Attend convention planning and post-convention meetings.*
- e. Attend the provincial convention in July (four days).
- f. Offer a Mass once a month for members of the diocesan council (stipend to be provided). Also offer a Mass for a deceased person on request of the diocesan council.
- g. Attend seven fall regional meetings and give short report or remarks.**
- h. Attend seven spring regional meetings and give short report or remarks.**
- i. Celebrate the Eucharist at Development Day (as arranged with organization chair).
- j. Appoint a regional spiritual advisor from among the priests in the region when required. Each term is for three to five years. For the development of the League in the region, it is important that the regional spiritual advisor be interested in and supportive of the CWL.

- * The attendance of the diocesan spiritual advisor is important at the executive, resolutions and convention planning meetings not only for his support but also for the practical advice which he can provide.

** The Eucharist preceding the regional meeting is celebrated by the regional spiritual advisor; he also gives the homily.

The diocesan spiritual advisor may prepare a spiritual message for the regional meeting or offer comments on the League proceedings.

Refer to Regional Guidelines E, page 53.

1.5 CONVENTIONS

- a. Attend annual diocesan convention and give message/remark at opening session; preside at the Eucharistic celebrations and at the installation/reaffirmation of officers.
- b. Host spiritual advisors and give report to convention, if applicable.
- c. In election year(s), as a member of the election committee, shall attend at the counting of ballots.
- d. Work with the spiritual development chair and the president to prepare the liturgies for the convention, including prayer services, and readings and Prayers of the Faithful for the Masses.
- e. Prepare greeting letter for the convention booklet.

See Appendix F – additional convention information

1.6 HONORARIUM FOR DIOCESAN SPIRITUAL ADVISOR

An honorarium of $150 per month is paid to the diocesan spiritual advisor to cover expenses, no receipts required. An additional $20 per month is forwarded to him for a Mass for the intentions of the members of the diocesan council.

2. PRESIDENT

2.1 RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to the general responsibilities outlined in the Constitution & Bylaws (PART XII, Section 1, pages 19-20), the president shall:

- a. Guide the council; develop leadership by encouraging standing committee chairs to appoint sub-conveners, in consultation with the president, to work with their corresponding regional conveners and to develop programs; provide support and information materials (i.e., national/provincial communique and information from meetings and workshops at other levels).
- b. Appoint new regional chairs as their two-year terms are completed. Maintain a close working relationship with regional chairs, utilizing their position to the fullest in conveying information and communique to the parish councils and, in turn, reacting to their reports and recommendations. This liaison between the regional chairs and the diocesan president is extremely important as it is only through the regional chairs that the League can be developed in the diocese.
- c. Appoint a newsletter editor to serve a two-year term beginning with the formation of each new executive term.
- d. Maintain a good rapport with the diocesan spiritual advisor, informing him of all planned projects and furnishing him with necessary League materials.
Refer to Spiritual Advisor page 2.
- e. Advise the Ordinary of the Diocese regarding the end of the diocesan spiritual advisor's term of office and the appointment of a new spiritual advisor.
- f. Decide, with the executive, projects to be undertaken.
- g. ensure that the objectives and policies of the League are always kept in mind.
- h. work to maintain a balance between the concerns of the parish councils and the importance of the League as a national organization.
- i. be a member of the provincial council.

2.2 SPECIFIC DUTIES

The president shall:

- a. Appoint regional chairs.
- b. Appoint the newsletter editor
- c. Appoint convention convener(s).
- d. (i) appoints the past president as the chair of the elections committee in November immediately preceding a diocesan election.
Refer to Constitution & Bylaws (PART XVI, Section 3, page 40).
(ii) where appropriate, appoint, in consultation with the executive, representatives to various Catholic and community organizations, charities and boards.
- e. Attend provincial convention (July) as voting delegate and present an oral report.
- f. Attend national convention (August) as accredited delegate.
- g. In consultation with the executive, establish the dates for the fall and spring regional meetings.
- h. In consultation with the executive, establish the format and prepare handouts when needed for the fall regional meetings.
- i. Prepare directives for three issues of the diocesan newsletter.

4. CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

4.1 RESPONSIBILITIES

- a. The corresponding secretary shall be the president's secretarial assistant. She does not act on her own initiative but only as directed by, and in consultation with, the president.
- b. Prepare correspondence and/or send on behalf of the president or spiritual advisor. Send Mass cards, sympathy cards, etc., as directed by the president.
Refer to Corresponding Secretary 4.3, page 8.
- c. Send notices of meetings to members of the diocesan council.
- d. Read all the correspondence (or a précis thereof) which the council has received since the last meeting, and forward a reply on behalf of the president, if so directed. Give a list of the correspondence received to the recording secretary and the president and keep a copy on file.
- e. Report on other League duties.
- f. Maintain and regularly update the election register of parish council presidents.
See Appendix D - Parish Information Form.
- g. Prepare directives for issues of the diocesan newsletter alternating with the corresponding secretary for a total of three issues each over the two-year term. Adhere to deadline dates. Refer to Newsletter Guidelines, page 47.

4.2 SPECIFIC CORRESPONDENCE

Immediately following the convention:

- a. Send a list of the executives, including regional chairs, (names, mailing and email addresses, postal codes, phone numbers) to the following:
  - (i) National office.
  - (ii) Ontario provincial corresponding secretary.
  - (iii) Diocesan treasurer for forwarding to the Ontario provincial newsletter editor with a cheque for the provincial newsletter, if more than 20 copies are required.
- b. Mail two copies of the executive list, including regional chairs and spiritual advisors, to the archbishop's secretary.
- c. Receive parish executive lists and make one copy for the president.
- d. In an election year, send a letter of notification of the new diocesan president, including mailing and email addresses and phone numbers, to specific address list on file.
- e. Order a supply of letterhead and envelopes.
- f. Mail a copy of the annual report with a covering letter to the archbishop and auxiliary bishops; also, to life members not attending the convention. Distribute copies of the annual report to all diocesan sub-conveners through each committee chair.
- g. Advise national office to mail presidential mailings with copies for the seven regional chairs.

July/August/September

- h. Mail letters of congratulations to the provincial president and to the national president on her election.
- i. Council lists must be kept up to date. Regional chairs are responsible for forwarding any changes of address, etc. as soon as possible. Diocesan council executive members must request this information as needed.
- j. Any changes to the diocesan council executive lists are forwarded immediately to the provincial and national councils.

November

- k. At the November executive meeting, circulate Christmas cards for signatures of diocesan council members to send to the cardinal/archbishop, bishops, life members and diocesan and regional spiritual advisors.
- l. In an election year, consult with historian in preparation of the election register of council past presidents eligible for nomination.

January/February

- m. Prepare a list of parish council presidents with complete addresses for the convention package convener for mailing, preferably in label format.
- n. Prepare a brief report for the annual report book and forward it to the organization chair by the specified deadline date.

February/March

- o. In consultation with the diocesan spiritual advisor, prepare his letter to the spiritual advisors of all councils regarding the concelebration of the opening and closing Eucharist at the diocesan annual convention (letters and reply forms).

April/May (Convention)

- p. Prepare an invitation for life members and diocesan executives, including regional chairs and regional spiritual advisors, for the head table reception prior to the banquet and the hospitality suite following the evening entertainment.
These invitations should be given to the convention registration convener for placing in the appropriate convention packages.
(Option: The diocesan president may wish to do this herself.)

4.3 MASS CARDS

Forward Mass cards at the request of the president for deceased council presidents, life members, diocesan council members and their immediate family members. Refer to Section II POLICIES 7.15, Deceased Members, page 19.

A supply of signed “blank” cards (spiritual advisor’s signature) are kept on file and mailed out as required.

Notify the diocesan treasurer of the deceased’s name; she subsequently will forward the information to the diocesan spiritual advisor with the appropriate offering.

4.4 GENERAL INFORMATION

4.4.1 Files: Turn files over at the end of the term to the president for culling.

4.4.2 Signature on letters: Have the president sign all letters unless directed to sign her name on her behalf. Give copies of all outgoing correspondence to the president.

4.4.3 Correspondence from council: Ensure that all correspondence from executive members has been approved by the president prior to distribution. Give a copy of the correspondence to the president.

- 4.4.4 Elections Register: In consultation with the past president/historian, maintain and review the elections register of parish presidents eligible for nomination in a diocesan election.

TO PREPARE FOR AN ELECTION YEAR, update the Elections Register with names and addresses of all eligible nominees indicating year(s) of office last served. A copy is given to the Nominations and Elections Chair (past president) and in consultation with her, prepare and send a nomination form and letter to those eligible for election.

See National Manual of Policy & Procedure for Eligibility, Nominations & Elections.

5. TREASURER

5.1 RESPONSIBILITIES

In addition to the general responsibilities outlined in the Constitution & Bylaws (PART XII, Section 4, Page 22-23), the treasurer shall:

5.2 BANKING

- a. In consultation with the president, choose a bank conveniently located for the treasurer. The Toronto Diocesan Council currently conducts banking with Canadian Imperial Bank of Commerce (CIBC)
- b. When changing signing authorities, obtain signature cards for three (3) signing officers, but only two signatures are necessary on cheques issued. The signing authorities should not sign their own expense cheques.
Note: The bank requires that all three signing authorities come in to sign all the forms.
- c. If needed, schedule a meeting with the accountant to discuss the treasurer's understanding of the position and to obtain suggestions.

5.3 PER CAPITA LISTS

- a. At the beginning of each month, the National Office will send a notice by email of the amount of per capita fees collected for the previous month and the date of the direct deposits, together with a per capita report showing a breakdown of both current and year-to-date fees received from the parishes.
- b. Verify the total amount collected for the month on the per capita report from National Office to the actual direct deposit amounts on the bank statement.
- c. As soon as possible, update the membership statistics by region and provide a copy to the president and the organization chair.

5.4 GUARANTEED INVESTMENTS

- a. Invest excess funds for flexible periods of time, if appropriate. Ensure that funds are accessible if needed. The accountant has advised that it is wise to keep a reserve equal to one year's operating expenses.
- b. The term deposits should be maintained at a level that will cover the council's expenses for one year.
- c. Following the year end, the first item for review in January should be the diocesan council's investments. A motion should be made to increase these funds on an annual basis, given the rate of inflation and the increase or decrease of any unforeseen expenses.

5.4.1 PROVINCIAL AND NATIONAL CONVENTION ACCOUNTS

Upon notification that the Toronto Diocesan Council will be hosting an Ontario Provincial or National Convention, the treasurer shall start to transfer funds from the General Bank Account to the Provincial/National Convention Account to cover the expenses of hosting such a convention.

The transfer of funds shall be made each year in January, with the final transfer made in the year of the convention. The amount of the yearly transfer is to be determined and voted on at a Toronto Diocesan Council Executive Meeting.

5.5 FUND DONATIONS

- a.
  - i) There is a separate Scholarship Account for donations received. Deposit all donations received for the following (listed in d. below) into the Scholarship Account. Record deposits by date, council name, region and charity.
  - ii) Other donations may be accepted and forwarded or returned to the parish CWL.
- b. National Voluntary Funds
Each parish is to forward their own cheques to National Office, accompanied by a National Voluntary Fund Remittance Form.
This form is revised yearly after the National Convention in August. Each council president receives this form along with other information directly from National. Following is a list of national-sponsored charities:
Coady International Institute Fund, Development and Peace, Catholic Missions in Canada and the Catholic Near East Welfare Association (CNEWA).
Other charities may be revised yearly.
- c. Provincial Voluntary Funds
Ontario Provincial Council has one voluntary donation fund which is the Bishop Pappin Memorial Bursary Fund. Remit these directly to the provincial treasurer.
- d. Diocesan Voluntary Scholarship Funds
The two diocesan scholarship funds are St. Michael's Scholarship Fund at University of Toronto and the Catholic Children's Aid Society - Hope for Children Foundation Scholarship Fund.
Donations to the scholarship funds are deposited into the Scholarship Account and awarded annually.

5.6 ANNUAL CONVENTION

- a. Based on the previous year, the treasurer shall present a budget to be approved by the council.
- b. Report on a cumulative basis from January 1st to meeting date.
- c. Be prepared to issue advance expense cheques at the appropriate time(s) at the request of the convention co-conveners.
- d. The treasurer will provide deposit slips to anyone handling cash (e.g., registration and banquet tickets). Deposits can be made at any CIBC bank, as long as the proper bank encoding is on the deposit.
NOTE: The treasurer must be immediately informed of each deposit made.
- e. Take the cheque book to the convention. Arrange for a safety deposit box(es) at the hotel.

6.9 ARCHIVES

6.9.1 Past president is responsible for compiling the materials for archiving. She will form a committee with the approval of the president to sort materials for archiving.

6.9.2 No documents from National, Provincial or Regional levels will be kept, nor newsletters from other organizations. Only important correspondence, as well as any important events and/or articles, all minutes of executive/convention/resolutions meetings, as well as annual general meetings and special committees, with financial statements attached, will be archived.

6.9.3 Past president needs to maintain ongoing contact with the Director of Archives for the Archdiocese of Toronto. Agreement regarding what can be archived needs to be drafted and reviewed every two years with the archivist.

Note: The records from 1921 to 2000 five reels of microfilm in the Archives of the Archdiocese of Toronto. A duplicate set of five reels of microfilm is kept by the past president. Currently the next ten years' archive materials (2001 to 2010) have also been sent to the Archives of the Archdiocese of Toronto.

II. POLICIES

7. POLICIES

Policies are established by a motion, duly made, seconded, and carried, at a meeting of the diocesan council and are subject to periodic review, at least every two to five years.

7.1 APPOINTMENTS

- a. Regional chairs, appointed by the diocesan president, shall serve a two-year term. They shall be considered members of the diocesan executive with the same voting privileges at meetings and conventions.
- b. The editor of the newsletter is appointed by, and answers directly to, the president, but does not have a vote on the diocesan council. This is not a sub-convener under communications. It is particularly recommended that a sub-convener be appointed to assist in the preparation and mailing of the newsletter. The editor may serve two consecutive terms.
- c. Diocesan sub-conveners are appointed in consultation with the president following headings in the Constitution & Bylaws for a two-year term and shall serve no longer than four years in the same sub-convenership.

7.2 LISTS

Each regional chair supplies a list of parish council spiritual advisors/presidents/treasurers in her region to the corresponding secretary.

7.3 CAR MILEAGE PAYMENTS

- a. Car mileage reimbursement: Car mileage is paid for individuals driving their “own” car. It is for the wear and tear (maintenance) of their vehicle. As of January 2012, $0.35 (35 cents) per kilometer shall be paid to the following members:
  - i) Diocesan executive members for all authorized meetings, except the Evening of Reflection and their own regional meeting, except for the president. This will include Regional Chairs attending TDC Executive meetings. This does not include their own Regional meetings or attending meetings in other Regions. For other meetings and events, car mileage will be paid to Regional Chairs out of Regional funds if in compliance with the Region’s Policy & Procedure.
  - ii) Persons specifically appointed by the diocesan council to attend designated meetings/events, excluding board meetings, shall be similarly reimbursed at the same rate as the diocesan executive, i.e. convention co-conveners, leadership course instructors.
  - iii) Any Toll Road charges (i.e., 407 or similar) are excluded and not covered.

7.4 SEMINARS

The registration fee for attending a seminar may be covered for the relevant chair and another executive member. Each case shall be reviewed on its merits at a meeting of the diocesan council. A brief written report shall be submitted by the committee chair who attended.

7.5 OFFICIAL DINNERS

- a. The Cardinal’s Dinner / Ordinandi Dinner: The president, president-elect and the spiritual advisor shall receive complimentary tickets, if attending. Tickets for other members of the diocesan council who wish to attend will not be subsidized. The treasurer will order tickets and request receipts for members who pay their own way.

7.5 (continued)

- b. Annual Testimonial Dinners: The president, president- elect and spiritual advisor shall receive complimentary tickets, if attending. As each occasion arises, this policy shall be reviewed by the council.

7.6 PROVINCIAL COUNCIL MEETINGS

The expense of travel, accommodation, meals, and meals en route incurred by the president attending the regular meetings of the provincial council shall be paid by the provincial council.

7.7 LEADERSHIP COURSES

This course is run at the regional level and is administered at that level under the supervision of the Diocesan Organization chair, who will provide all course content. A registration fee is to be collected by the region and used to cover all costs (with receipts) for payment (i.e., mileage, hall rental, refreshments etc.) . The successful attendees list will be given to the Diocesan Organization chair for her records and reporting.

7.8 DEVELOPMENT DAY

Development Day shall be offered at least once a year to the members to enhance growth and personal development. Funds can be requested from National or Provincial Development Funds if workshops for the day meet their criteria. No fee shall be collected for diocesan executive, regional chairs, or newsletter editor. No fee shall be charged for the Convention Chair or her designate if deemed that she also needs to attend development day for the purpose of distributing convention materials.

7.9 DIOCESAN PROJECTS

The diocesan council shall decide whether a special project shall be recommended to the councils for their support, subject to the approval of the Catholic Pastoral Centre.

7.10 MOTIONS BOOK

Motions passed at meetings of the diocesan council shall be entered by the recording secretary in a Motions Book by number and date. The president shall have a duplicate of this book for ready reference. Motions shall be kept for five years, and then given to the historian.

7.11 RESOLUTIONS

The diocesan resolutions chair shall call a meeting of the resolutions committee for the purpose of discussing and revising a proposed resolution(s). Copies of these revised resolutions, approved by the diocesan council, shall be forwarded with a letter to all council presidents prior to the convention. Any council wishing to change the resolution shall submit the amendment, in writing, to the diocesan resolutions standing committee chair two weeks prior to the convention.

7.12 REGIONAL FINANCIAL POLICY

Refer to regional guidelines section on page 51.

7.13 MONTHLY MASS FOR DIOCESAN COUNCIL

The spiritual advisor shall offer a Mass once a month for the intentions of the members of the diocesan council. A stipend of $20 per month, shall be provided by the treasurer as requested by the spiritual development chair.

7.14 MONTHLY MASS FOR MEMBERS

With the approval of the diocesan council, the spiritual development chair shall arrange for a monthly Mass to be said for the intentions of all League members in the diocese. ## 11. ORGANIZATION (continued)

11.2 (continued)

- f. For new and or/ reorganized parish councils only, give the president the following:
  - * List of diocesan executives (in copy of newsletter).
  - * Fifty prayer leaflets and CWL brochures (either blue/gold or white).
  - * Copies of the last two or three annual reports and newsletters.
  - * President's pin (ordered from national office and presented at installation)
  - * List of regional executives.
  - * Spiritual advisor's pin (to be presented at installation).
- g. Prepare for the installation of the new officers. In consultation with the regional chairs, prepare a list of duties that will be performed by each officer.
- h. Review supplies received in president's kit from National and order required items accordingly. i.e. president's pin, spiritual advisors pin, 10-12 taper candles.

11.3 LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT/DEVELOPMENT DAY

- a. Promote the leadership & public speaking course in all regions.
- c. Request regional chairs to set up course with the leadership course sub-convener(s).
- d. The leadership course sub-convener(s) shall arrange for leaders, provide materials, and keep in contact. She shall also recommend to the organization chair if a meeting of all leaders is needed - i.e., every other year - at which time appropriate revisions and additions can be made to the course.
- e. Begin planning Development Day early, with target date of mid-February. Consult with president to avoid conflicting dates with other levels of the League. Details such as time, place, and format should be in place in time for the Fall Newsletter. Map and registration form should be in the Winter Newsletter. Keep in mind standing committee workshops are usually held every second year.

11.4 LEAGUE PUBLICATIONS

Prepare information and directives for newsletter. Encourage the use of the Diocesan Newsletter, websites, The Canadian League magazine, and the Constitution & Bylaws.

11.5 RESOURCE MATERIAL

Provide all diocesan executives with an up-to-date copy of the National and Diocesan Manuals of Policy and Procedure and Executive Handbook section relating to their standing committee. Keep on file a complete copy of the Executive Handbook and all resource materials that may be required by the executive members.

11.6 ANNUAL REPORTS

Arrange for the printing and distribution of the diocesan annual report forms. Annual report surveys are available to councils as of Nov. 1st each year on the national website. Notify councils when available and deadline for submission (hard copy and electronic). Notify diocesan executive as to headings, outline and due date allowing time for compilation, reading, and composing by diocesan executive. These reports reflect activities from Jan 1 to Dec 31st of each year. The provincial organization chair will provide deadlines. Notify parishes and diocesan executives of deadlines.

11.6.1 Parish Reports

Request parishes complete annual report surveys on the national website by the due date as determined by national office.

11.6.2 Regional Chairs' Reports

Request regional chairs send two copies of reports, which are overall reviews of regional activities for the period of Jan 1 to Dec 31st.

One copy is forwarded by the diocesan organization chair to the diocesan president; the other is retained for the printer.

11.6.3 Diocesan Committee Chairs' Reports

Compile from parish reports. Diocesan committee chairs send three copies to diocesan organization chair. Two copies are given to the diocesan president (who forwards one copy to provincial) and the third copy is retained for the annual report book.

11.6.4 Special Reports

Diocesan spiritual advisor, president, treasurer, the two secretaries and the newsletter editor forward their reports in duplicate to the organization chair.

11.6.5 Committee to Correct and Edit Reports

Set up a committee to correct and edit committee chairs' and regional chairs' reports before sending to the printer/photocopying service.

Note: The first copy from the printer must be proofread, before filling the complete order.

11.7 UPDATE TO DIOCESAN MANUAL OF POLICY AND PROCEDURE

The Manual is a living document and kept electronically. The electronic copy is updated upon passing of new motions. Distribute revisions to Diocesan Executive, Regional Chairs and Spiritual Advisor in a timely manner.

In the first year of her term, the organization chair will form a committee to update the P&P to consist of :

- President Elect
- Past president
- A life member
- One member of the current executive

In the second year of her term, meet at least three times to revise and update the Toronto Diocesan Manual of Policy and Procedure in cooperation with the president and the executive members. All executive members are responsible for identifying any changes required under their section of the manual.

11.8 CONVENTION DUTIES

11.8.1 Order, prepare and present Certificates of Merit for parishes with an increase of ten (10) or more members. Letters of invitation are

11.8 CONVENTION DUTIES (continues)

- 11.8.2 Order and present all new councils with a picture of Our Lady of Good Counsel (mounted 9" x 12"), available from national office. Letter of invitation is sent.
- 11.8.3 Order and present special anniversary certificates when appropriate. Letter of invitation is sent to parish president.
- 11.8.4 Arrange for annual reports to be distributed in a systematic manner. There should be enough printed to ensure that the following all receive a copy:
- Parish presidents
  - Diocesan executive
  - Diocesan sub-conveners
  - Diocesan life members
  - Regional spiritual advisors
  - The cardinal/archbishop and bishops
  - Provincial president and provincial organization chair
  - Two (2) copies to be sent to Toronto Central Reference Library
  - One (1) copy for Toronto Diocesan CWL archives
  - Extra copies required for sale and for presentations to future councils

12. CHRISTIAN FAMILY LIFE

IN ADDITION TO THE GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIOCESAN CHAIRS AS OUTLINED ON PAGES 23 AND 24, SPECIFIC DUTIES UNDER THIS STANDING COMMITTEE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

Encourage councils to keep the broad scope of the standing committee by covering the five sub-headings in a balanced manner.

12.1 MARRIAGE AND FAMILY

- a. Promote family prayer. It is a binding, strengthening force.
- b. Support parents in their roles as the persons primarily responsible for the human and spiritual development of their children, with consideration given to helping them understand the morals and values crises they are facing.
Consideration should be given to:
  - * families with two working parents;
  - * the changing role of women;
  - * single-parent families;
  - * families in crisis;
  - * the middle-aged parent.
- c. Promote and lend support to:
  - * programs such as engagement and marriage encounter weekends, marriage preparation and enrichment courses, natural family planning methods, parenting courses, stress workshops, substance abuse programs;
  - * family participation in parish social events.

12.2 SANCTITY OF LIFE

The Catholic Women's League pledges its support of life from conception to natural death. Urge members to:

- a. pray for all those caught up in the violence that surrounds the abortion issue;
- b. educate and keep members aware of the church's teachings on all aspects of this issue;
- c. join local pro-life groups, become active members, support financially, volunteer time and effort; i.e., by writing to MPs, MPPs, etc.;
- d. appoint members to attend pro-life meetings and report frequently to the council, distribute literature and keep members up-to-date and aware of all related issues, in particular those that require immediate attention or action.
- e. support peace-filled prayerful Marches for Life, vigils, Life Chain, December 8th Celebrate Life Masses.
- f. discourage any ideas of violence re the abortion issue; do not condone, promote, or be involved in acts of violence;
- g. study related topics such as family member abuse, adolescent suicide, euthanasia, death and dying, problem areas in contemporary human genetics and sound moral reasoning as it affects the basic rights of the individual family, the meaning of life and death, our dignity and our future.

12.3.1 MINISTRY TO YOUTH

- a. Encourage CWL councils to form a Catholic Girls League for girls ages 9-15. For the formation of a new CGL first refer to Appendix I - CGL Checklist 2014 and Appendix J - CWL-CGL Volunteer Description.
- b. Encourage girls ages 16 and over to join the CWL and encourage members to take an active part as leaders in Girl Guides, Brownies, and other Catholic youth groups in the community.
- c. Invite the youth of the parish to become involved by helping widows, seniors and single parents by offering their services, e.g., babysitting, driveway shoveling, yard care, shopping, rides to meetings and to Mass, doctor's appointments, etc.
- d. Assist the promoters of COR Weekends.
- e. Support the young people wishing to attend World Youth Days and other major Catholic youth rallies.
- f. Become aware of youth issues. Support the Toronto Archdiocesan Youth Office, add council's name to Youth newsletter circulation, advertise their proposed projects, and invite speakers. Ask Youth Office for guidance and direction.

12.3.2 MINISTRY TO DISABLED

- a. Encourage disabled to take active, executive roles in the CWL by removing any obstacles (transportation, etc.).
- b. Encourage councils to have speakers and presentations on topics pertaining to the disabled.

12.3.3 MINISTRY TO SENIORS

Encourage councils to:

- a. invite seniors to belong to the League and keep them informed/connected to the council; ensure a drive to events/meetings. Ask them to be active in a prayer and/or rosary group, and/or telephone committee. Stress the immense value these services are to the League.
- b. Include seniors in planning seniors' events; seek the advice of senior members; ask them to share their memories and help form a history of the council.
- c. invite speakers who would address the concerns of the seniors in the parish; e.g., power of attorney, prescription drugs, elder abuse, income tax services, health and home care;
- d. keep the seniors in the parish informed of all new legislation that would concern them; keep them informed of their rights; make seniors' resource information booklets available.

12.3.4 MINISTRY TO WIDOWED

Encourage councils to:

- a. have a parish bereavement group, such as New Beginnings or Bereaved Families of Ontario;
- b. offer speakers on topics of special concern; e.g., coping with their loss;
- c. keep in touch; offer prayer, support and companionship.

12.3.5 MINISTRY TO SEPARATED AND DIVORCED

Encourage councils to:

- a. promote New Beginnings program;
- b. present a forum to discuss problems; invite speakers on topics of special concern; i.e., coping with their loss, adjusting to life as a single person, finding strength in their faith;
- c. offer prayer, encouragement and friendship.

12.3.6 MINISTRY TO SINGLES

Encourage singles to participate in other ministries within the church. Singles are part of the Christian family, and their gifts are an "untapped resource" in our churches today. This ministry promotes growth of the whole person. Its purpose is not to separate the single from the rest of the congregation, but to make them feel welcome and part of the whole.

12.4 VOCATIONS: PRIESTHOOD, RELIGIOUS AND LAY VOCATIONS

- a. Promote prayers for vocations.
- b. Encourage parents to go to church with their children.
- c. Emphasize respect for priests and religious and avoid criticism. Invite them into your home. Encourage and support any person who may be hearing Christ's unique call.
- d. Promote prayers, programs, workshops, literature, retreats and speakers in the schools and the community.
- e. Pray for the success of the "Called by Name" program. Members should help out when it is presented in their parish.
- f. Coordinate with a Serra House representative and arrange and collect spiritual bouquets to support the Ordinandi Dinner. Attend dinner planning meetings as required. Encourage councils to honour those taking religious vows. They should be invited as speakers and asked to share their faith journey with the parish.
- g. Encourage councils to invite newly ordained priests to share the story of their personal journeys or perhaps of their first year as a priest.
- h. Promote donations to the Bishop Pappin Memorial Bursary Fund (for seminarians).

13. COMMUNITY LIFE

IN ADDITION TO THE GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIOCESAN CHAIRS AS OUTLINED ON PAGES 23 AND 24, SPECIFIC DUTIES UNDER THIS STANDING COMMITTEE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

13.1 RESPONSIBILITIES

The community life chair, assisted by sub-conveners, shall be responsible for encouraging councils to become involved in the community.

13.2 COMMUNITY PROJECTS

If the committee chair is asking councils to support charitable organizations, please ensure that these are endorsed by the diocesan executive, by vote (See Policies 7.9, page 18) and by the Catholic Pastoral Centre. Remittance instructions should agree with instructions given by the treasurer.

Approved diocesan projects:

- a. Issues Concerning Dignity and Rights of Persons
For example: group homes; day care centers; women's rights; Family Law reform; Amnesty International, etc.
- b. Social and Economic Justice
For example: Free Trade products.
- c. Refugees, Immigration and Citizenship
Encourage and/or assist with parish sponsorship of refugee families. Welcome those new to Canada and assist them in adjusting to the Canadian way of life.
- d. Canadian Catholic Organization for Development and Peace (CCODP)
Encourage League members to thoroughly understand the Canadian Catholic Organization for Development & Peace, its aims and how it works. Urge councils and League members to contribute 1% of personal spending or parish council funds.
- e. Developing Countries
Work with other groups in the parish and other denominations in the community to make people more aware of world poverty and to seek solutions.

13.3 WOMEN IN PUBLIC LIFE

Encourage members at all levels of the League to support and encourage qualified women to run for public office. All community life chairs are urged to introduce themselves to their elected representatives, asking to be placed on the mailing list for any newsletters and updates that may be issued.

13.4 RESOLUTIONS

Many of the resolutions passed at all levels of the League are directed to this standing committee. As resolutions are passed, review and provide directives to councils on how to best react to the issue.

14. EDUCATION AND HEALTH

IN ADDITION TO THE GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIOCESAN CHAIRS AS OUTLINED ON PAGES 23 AND 24, SPECIFIC DUTIES UNDER THIS STANDING COMMITTEE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

14.1 CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

Promote councils' support of their parish schools by encouraging members to:

- a. attend school board meetings and serve on school boards;
- b. participate in and support the Holy Childhood Association.

14.2 ADULT EDUCATION

Promote parenting and continuing education courses to all members.

14.3 DIOCESAN SCHOLARSHIPS

a. St. Michael's College Scholarship Fund

- The amount of the scholarship for the coming year will be decided by vote at the Spring executive meeting. Make the following motion: "That the St. Michael's Scholarship in the amount of $_____ be provided for a Catholic girl entering St. Michael's College, U of T."
- Notify the Office of Student Awards in September advising them of our intention, stating the amount and that a cheque will follow. In April, the sub-convener with the approval of the president, will write a letter enclosing the cheque to the Student Awards secretary.
- Promote the scholarship in the diocesan Newsletter and at regional meetings. It is essential that funds be received to cover our commitment.
- Prepare and distribute flyers and a covering letter advertising the scholarship to regional chairs for distribution to parish presidents.
- Announce the scholarship recipient in the E & H newsletter article for the Winter issue of the Toronto Diocesan Newsletter.
- Invite the scholarship recipient to the convention and ask her to address the assembly.

16. RESOLUTIONS

IN ADDITION TO THE GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIOCESAN CHAIRS AS OUTLINED ON PAGES 23 AND 24, SPECIFIC DUTIES UNDER THIS STANDING COMMITTEE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

16.1 RESPONSIBILITIES (Also refer to Checklists outlined in Appendix K, L and M)

- a. Review past diocesan, provincial and national resolutions, and the files of the past diocesan resolutions chair.
- b. Keep the members up-to-date concerning current national and provincial resolutions through directives in the diocesan newsletter and reports at regional meetings; encourage parish resolutions chairs to report on these matters at monthly meetings of their councils.
- c. Ensure that the diocesan council prepares at least two resolutions for presentation at the annual convention. If no appropriate topics are received, research current social issues and concerns in order to suggest topics for possible follow-up. Encourage regional resolutions conveners and councils to continue to submit resolutions topics throughout the year, thereby creating a bank of topics from which proposed resolutions may be selected.
- d. Be responsible for dealing with all queries from members and others regarding CWL resolutions, past and present.
- e. Comply with directives from the provincial resolutions chair, particularly with regard to deadline dates for topics, mailing briefs, etc.

- f. Inform members of the importance of the resolutions standing committee to the League and Canada and, in every way possible, clarify and simplify the work and processes involved in this standing committee.
- g. Be ready to prepare workshops for presentations to interested councils or groups of councils so that they can have “hands-on“ experience in preparing resolutions.
- h. Submit timely resolutions updates and maintain resolutions resources on the Diocesan website.
- i. Refer to Toronto Diocesan Resolutions Chair Checklists, Appendix K & L for detailed list of Resolutions Chair responsibilities.

16.2 DIOCESAN RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

The diocesan resolutions committee consists of the spiritual advisor, president and diocesan executive and regional chairs under the leadership of the diocesan resolutions chair, who may add additional members to the committee, appointed in consultation with the president and the spiritual advisor.

16.3 PURPOSE OF DIOCESAN RESOLUTIONS COMMITTEE

- a. To review/study all materials submitted by parish councils.
- b. To determine which resolutions will be recommended to the diocesan executive for their approval.
- c. To research and recruit a research assistant(s) to collect background information and facilitate a team to write the resolution.

16.4 PURPOSE OF RESOLUTIONS

- a. To review and improve existing conditions.
- b. To suggest steps to remedy a situation.
- c. To initiate a project.
- d. To commend for action.

16.5 SUBMISSION BY PARISH COUNCIL

- a. Topics may be submitted with a council contact name and phone number to the diocesan resolutions chair continually (all year round), thereby creating a resolutions topics bank.
- b. The deadline for submissions is October 31st of the current year for consideration for the following year's convention. Councils will also be required to submit a signed letter to include the date the parish council motion was made along with the signature of the parish president and recording secretary.
- c. DIOCESAN RESOLUTIONS REVIEW/APPROVAL: 1st Resolutions Meeting in (November): the diocesan executive members vote on the topic(s) to be selected for crafting resolutions for presentation at the next annual convention.

- d. The diocesan committee chair creates and co-ordinates committees that
  - (i) research the topics.
  - (ii) craft the resolutions; and
  - (iii) review and edit the final version
- e. The 2nd Resolution Meeting (January): The diocesan executive members vote on the resolutions(s) to be selected for presentation at the annual convention.
- f. The committee shall expand to include individuals who are not necessarily League members but people with expertise and objectivity. The parish council members submitting the topics should participate fully in committee work. Pertinent information and updating of the topic(s) may be circulated to other parishes to raise interest in assisting in research.
- g. Resolutions meetings are open to all, but only diocesan executive members may vote. The final version of the resolution is accepted or rejected by the diocesan council. January 31st is the deadline for a copy of the rough draft and brief for all proposed resolutions to be sent to the provincial resolutions chair.

16.6 PREPARATION OF THE BRIEF

A brief provides background information for a particular resolution. It provides support with facts, figures, and specific instances. Materials may be expanded by the resolutions committee at each level, i.e., provincial committee.

- a. Assemble all available materials (correspondence, articles, copies of current legislation, etc.). It is not necessary to submit duplicates of bulky books - one copy for reference is sufficient.
- b. Write a short preamble by headings: statement of the problem; proposed solution; expected results to the community or cause; budget restrictions; summary of recommendations.
- c. Prepare labeled binders (usually three copies) for each resolution prior to the diocesan convention.
- d. Immediately after the diocesan convention, send a letter to the provincial resolutions chair listing the adopted resolutions, signed by the diocesan president and secretary, along with three labeled binders for each resolution, containing one copy of the approved resolution, complete backup material, brief and resolution checklist completed
- e. Be prepared to speak at the provincial convention in favour of the resolution. If unable to attend, review each submission with the diocesan president or another delegate who may be called upon to address the convention delegates. After a diocesan executive election, the newly elected diocesan resolutions chair attends the provincial convention to speak to the resolution if accepted by provincial.
- f. By diocesan vote, decide whether to proceed with the resolution or change focus to a petition which may be more effective. Diocesan rules require that any petition placed in the church must have prior approval of the Chancellor of Temporal Affairs for the Archdiocese of Toronto and the pastor of the parish in question.

16.7 CONVENTION PRESENTATION

- a. The proposed resolution, duly approved by the diocesan resolutions committee, is then provided for each council president with a covering letter. (This is usually included in the “convention packages” distributed at Development Day or mailed in advance of the convention.)
- b. Resolutions Dialogue Session: This informal session is held on the first day of the convention. This is open to anyone who is registered for the convention.
- c. Resolutions Business Session: On the second day of the convention, the resolution, excluding the brief is read, word for word, by the diocesan resolutions chair. The submitting council moves the adoption of the resolution. The president asks for a seconder. The mover or her designate speaks first to the resolution (two minutes only), followed by discussion.
- d. Refer to Provincial Resolutions Checklist for detailed list of resolutions chairs responsibilities to the Provincial Resolutions Committee.

16.8 FOLLOW-UP

- a. In consultation with the diocesan president, legislation chair and applicable standing committee chairs, write letters in September regarding all resolved clauses in diocesan, provincial, and national resolutions passed at conventions.
- b. The diocesan chair shall follow the progress of resolutions passed at the diocesan convention. Inform the parish councils of the acceptance or rejection at each level. Encourage ongoing study/research.
- c. Resolutions addressed to the Ontario provincial government are presented to the Ontario cabinet members by a provincial delegation made up of resource persons (if deemed necessary) with secretarial assistance.
- d. Resolutions addressed to the federal government appear in the fall issue of The Canadian League magazine. Personal presentation to the federal cabinet members is made by the national resolutions committee.

16.9 RESOLUTIONS FILES

These files shall contain:

- Past diocesan, provincial and national resolutions
  - Past chairs’ files (two previous)
  - Briefs
  - Government replies to resolutions
  - Correspondence
- Soft copies of files saved on current electronic storage system. (eg. USB).
Sundry reference literature, etc.

Because of the prolific materials required by the resolutions chair at all levels, every effort should be made to keep files in good order and up to date.

17. LEGISLATION

IN ADDITION TO THE GENERAL RESPONSIBILITIES OF DIOCESAN CHAIRS AS OUTLINED ON PAGES 23 AND 24, SPECIFIC DUTIES UNDER THIS STANDING COMMITTEE ARE AS FOLLOWS:

“TIPS” FOR PREPARING NEWSLETTER ARTICLES

- a. The newsletter goes to all members, but specifically addresses parish councils' standing committee chairs. Give them concrete suggestions.
- b. Information should be relevant to each standing committee, especially when suggesting speakers and/or films.
- c. Standing committee chairs are to thank the individuals who helped them in person, and not in the newsletter.
- d. Try to focus on a different aspect of your committee for each issue.
- e. The editor has the authority to cut, condense or delete items when necessary.

V. REGIONAL GUIDELINES

A. FUNCTION OF REGIONAL CHAIR

1. Shall be a CWL member in good standing and belong to a Council located within the Region's boundaries.
2. Shall have been a parish president for one full term and currently not also serving as a parish president.
3. Act as liaison between diocesan council and parish presidents.
4. Represent parish council presidents on diocesan council.
5. Attend all diocesan meetings.
6. Encourage parish presidents to receive and read the diocesan newsletter and share all information with their members.
7. Maintain the dual responsibility of identifying with the needs of parish council and the responsibility of developing the League in the region as a diocesan/provincial/national organization.

B. RESPONSIBILITIES OF REGIONAL CHAIR

The regional chair shall:

1. a. Forward list of parish council presidents, spiritual advisors and treasurers with complete mailing and email addresses, postal codes, and telephone numbers, to diocesan corresponding secretary for the first diocesan executive meeting following the annual convention. This is the responsibility of the outgoing regional chair.
- b. When a complete list has been compiled by the diocesan corresponding secretary, advise her of any errors or omissions. Forward any changes during the year. It is essential that diocesan lists are accurate and up to date at all times.
(Lists are confidential and are not to be used outside of League work.)
2. a. Appoint regional executive: secretary, treasurer, conveners of standing committees, as required. Parish presidents are members of the regional council with full voting privileges. (Past parish presidents should be enlisted as regional executive.)
- b. Ensure that all members of the regional executive have a subscription to the diocesan newsletter, as well as copies of the Executive Handbook and regional guidelines pertaining to their standing committees.
3. Attend all diocesan executive meetings (five per year). For each meeting submit a report of the work done in the region - special regional projects, dates, and results of regional public speaking contest, items of special interest, concerns, and results of these projects. It is important to report only on duties carried out as regional chair or by the region. Work accomplished by the parish councils will be contained in the committee chairs' reports. The regional chairs have full voting privileges as members of the diocesan council.
4. a. Be a member of the convention committee, attending planning meetings and post-convention meetings. Attend all sessions of the convention as an accredited delegate.
- b. Attend two resolutions meetings.
5. a. Convene three regional executive meetings (Fall, Winter, and Spring) and two regional general meetings per year (Fall and Spring). Diocesan council establishes dates and sets agenda. See Meetings Appendix E, page 53.

B. RESPONSIBILITIES OF REGIONAL CHAIR (continued)

- b. Send notices of general regional meetings with directions and map to diocesan executive, regional executive, parish council presidents and spiritual advisors.
  - c. Advise diocesan president re: date and place of regional executive meetings, as she may wish to attend.
  - d. Send diocesan president a copy of the minutes of both the regional executive and general meetings as soon as possible.
NOTE: the rest of the diocesan executive do not need a copy of the minutes.
6. Organize a third meeting or event. See Meetings D.3, page 48.
  7. Refer to the Toronto Diocesan Manual of Policy and Procedure 7.12 Regional Financial Policy, pages 18-19.
  8. Set up a communications committee, as there will be many times during the year when all presidents must be contacted on short notice.
  9. Maintain close contact with parish presidents; attend social events when possible. Encourage all parish executive members to attend regional meetings.
  10. Provide diocesan president with regional information on request.
  11. Work closely with the leader(s) of regional Leadership and Public Speaking Course.
  12. Be part of the diocesan resolutions committee.
  13. Promote diocesan, provincial, or national projects in the region and report reaction and results of these projects.
  14. Make use of resource materials available, i.e., Constitution & Bylaws, National and Diocesan Manuals of Policy and Procedure, Executive Handbook, The Canadian League magazine, diocesan and provincial newsletters, previous files, reports, and websites from all levels. Be knowledgeable of ALL standing committees.
  15. Encourage regional standing committee chairs to be in contact with their respective parish and diocesan chairs.
  16. On request, advise diocesan president regarding persons qualified to succeed you in office. Do not contact these people personally.
  17. Advise diocesan spiritual advisor regarding the date of the regional spiritual advisor's termination of office. The term of office for a spiritual advisor may be three to five years.

Note: It would be advisable for the regional council to maintain a regional Manual of Policy and Procedure.

REGIONAL FINANCIAL POLICY

Only parish council presidents vote on financial matters.

C.1 Regional Dues

The amount of regional dues paid by councils in the region shall be decided by vote of the parish council presidents within each region.

REGIONAL FINANCIAL POLICY (continued)

C.1.a Mileage incurred by the regional chair to attend all official Toronto diocesan meetings, including the annual convention and Development Day, shall be covered by the Toronto diocesan council.

NOTE: The Toronto diocesan council does not cover the regional chair for:

1. Mileage to attend her own or other regional meetings
2. Mileage to attend Evening of Reflection

C.1.b the cost of the banquet ticket for the regional chair shall be covered by the Toronto diocesan council.

NOTE: The banquet ticket for the regional spiritual advisor is covered by the region.

C.1.c The Toronto Diocesan council shall cover the cost for any mailings directed through the region by the diocesan council.

C.2 Regional Executive

- (a) Expenses incurred by the regional chairs in attending meetings of the diocesan council and the annual convention (i.e., accommodation, meals, mileage, and the cost of the regional hospitality room) excluding registration fee and the banquet ticket shall be paid out of regional funds.
- (b) Expenses of regional executive for mileage and administration shall be paid by the region, funds permitting.
- (c) An annual stipend in lieu of expenses shall be paid to the regional spiritual advisor by the region, funds permitting.

C.3 Mailing Costs

Cost of any mailings directed through the region by the diocesan council is the responsibility of the diocesan council.

The region, however, is responsible for distribution of materials brought to regional meetings by the diocesan council. These are handed out to councils at the meetings; if no representation from a council is in attendance, then the regional chair forwards these later.

C4 Regional Projects

Regional projects should be encouraged to draw the region together but should not detract from the League as a diocesan organization.

D. REGIONAL CHAIR'S PIN AND REGIONAL BAR

Each region should keep in its possession a CWL president's pin and regional bar to be presented to an incoming regional chair. On completion of her term of office, the regional council would then present the outgoing chair with a new regional bar which would be attached to the outgoing chair's own personal past president's pin.

E. MEETINGS

- * All general regional meetings shall begin with the celebration of Mass and allow for a social period.
- * Program at regional meetings shall have diocesan council approval.

1. Regional Executive Meetings (should be held at least two weeks prior to the spring and fall general meetings)

Regional executive meetings are held in preparation for regional general meetings, to attend to regional business, to report on the diocesan executive meeting attended and to advise regarding diocesan directives. It is important that time be allowed for parish presidents to discuss their initiatives and concerns.

2. Fall Regional General Meeting

The fall regional general meeting is held to present the regional chair's annual report and to receive written reports from the regional executive and the parish council presidents. Council presidents shall be advised to prepare an oral report on one major highlight of the current year. Handouts provided by the Diocesan council should be given to the regional chairs prior to the regional executive meetings. Diocesan president and the Diocesan Spiritual Advisor shall give reports.

3. Winter Regional Meeting

The regional chair shall chair a winter executive meeting however a winter general meeting is optional and entirely up to the region to have or not. However, it is advisable for the development of the League, and to maintain communication with parish presidents, to hold a winter general meeting. The format of this meeting is left to the discretion of the regional chair. The diocesan executive will not be in attendance, except for those residing in the region. This is the ONLY regional meeting where a speaker may be invited. Several regions take this opportunity to offer a spiritual program or retreat.

4. Spring Regional General Meeting

The spring regional general meeting is held to provide current information from the diocesan president/regional executive members; they will be responsible for the presentations and handouts. The Diocesan President, the Diocesan Spiritual Advisor and the Diocesan President-Elect give reports at this meeting. Convention convener(s) shall also give a report.

F. REGIONAL MASS

The regional spiritual development chair will work with the host council to organize the Mass. All plans shall be approved by the regional chair, regional spiritual advisor and the host pastor. All plans shall follow the regional Mass guidelines. Any concerns should be addressed to the diocesan president.

G. REGIONAL MASS GUIDELINES (refer to Regional Mass Checklist- Appendix H)

1. The regional chair is responsible for making all arrangements for the celebration of the Mass for regional general meetings or for designating someone responsible, usually the spiritual development chair in consultation with the regional spiritual advisor.

2. The regional spiritual advisor will preside at the celebration of the Mass. When possible, the diocesan spiritual advisor will concelebrate, as well as the local pastor and other spiritual advisors who may be present.
3. The presiding celebrant should be asked to deliver the homily.
4. At the time the Mass is scheduled, the host parish should ensure that the church is reserved for a full 90 minutes: 30 minutes prior to the beginning of Mass, 45 minutes for the Mass itself and 15 minutes for clean-up time.
5. Whenever possible, music should be provided with a musician, choir and/or cantor to lead the congregation. The hosting parish should be invited first to assist. If one is not available, the regional chair should ask the hosting pastor's permission to invite an alternate.
6. The following is a basic program for liturgical music: (1) Processional Hymn; (2) Responsorial Psalm/Response; (3) Gospel Acclamation (always sung); (4) Communion Hymn; (5) O Canada (always sung) immediately prior to the Recessional Hymn. Hymns used should be well known.
7. CWL members should: (a) proclaim the readings; (b) compose and read the prayers of general intercession; (c) present the gifts at the Offertory. All levels of the CWL should be represented in the foregoing.
Refer to Spiritual Development, 3. (i) a, page 51.
8. Installation or reaffirmation of regional officers is included in the Fall Regional Meeting Mass.
9. In view of our promotion of the spirituality of the League, these guidelines should be followed as closely as possible. The meeting following the Mass will commence with the League prayer, a scripture reading and a SHORT reflection. The adjournment of the meeting should be followed by a final prayer (i.e. Our Lady of Good Counsel or Prayer for Vocations etc.) and the communal blessing by the spiritual advisor(s) present.
Refer to Suggested Format for Regional Meetings G, page 49.

H. SUGGESTED FORMAT – REGIONAL MEETINGS

THE CATHOLIC WOMEN'S LEAGUE OF CANADA
TORONTO DIOCESAN COUNCIL

DIOCESAN ELECTIONS PROCEDURE

1. The president shall appoint a member who is not a candidate for office to be secretary of elections.
2. The president shall remain in the chair during the election procedure.
3. The chair of the nominations and elections committee conducts the election.
4. Prior to voting, the assembly is called to prayer. Quiet should be maintained during the elections.
5. Voting delegates will vote at the same time and will be seated in such a way as to ensure balloting secrecy.
6. The ballots shall be counted by members of the nominations and elections committee and the spiritual advisor.
7. Prior to the election, the committee shall post a complete list of officers and the name of candidates for each office (or provide copies of the list for the delegates). This list is kept in confidence until posting/distribution time.
8. Following posting/distribution of the candidates list, the chair will introduce candidates who are present.
9. The chair explains the voting procedure:
  - a. Voting will be by ballot. If there is only one candidate for an office, approval shall be by motion to declare the candidate elected.
C&B PART XVI, Section 5(c). C&B 2013.
  - b. Instructed vote - applies to the first ballot only. On the first ballot, the voting delegate must vote for her council's nominees as previously determined by the council executive.
C&B PART XVI – Section 5(a)

If she is unsure about her council's nominee, the chairperson will provide a copy of her council's nomination form.

If the voting delegate does not have an instructed vote from the executive, she forfeits her privilege to vote on the first and all subsequent ballots for that position. C&B PART XVI - Section 5(b)

If there is no majority on the first ballot, then the voting delegate is free to vote for the nominee of her choice in succeeding ballots.
  - c. A member may be a candidate for more than one office. When elected to an office, her name shall be removed from the candidates list for the other offices. Voting delegates are then released from their instructed vote.

Elections Procedure - Page 2.

- d. Election of officers shall be by MAJORITY vote.
  - i) When a majority vote (more than half) has been obtained on the first ballot, the successful candidate shall be declared elected by the chair.
  - ii) When no majority vote has been obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot is required. The Voting Delegates will show the results of the instructed vote prior to the second ballot.
  - iii) If the second ballot does not result in a majority vote, the result of this ballot (second) will be shown to the voting delegates prior to the third ballot.
  - iv) If three ballots fail to produce a majority vote for one candidate, then the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. In the event of a tie vote on the third ballot, fourth ballots, using only the names of the tied candidates, will be taken. C&B PART XVI - Section 5(d)(i)
- e. Election of standing committee chairs shall be by PLURALITY vote.
  - i) The elections chairperson announces the number of standing committee chairs (five) required to be elected.
NOTE: chairpersons are not elected to a specific standing committee.
  - ii) If only the required number candidates are standing for the office of standing committee chair, approval shall be by motion to declare the candidates elected. C&B PART XVI – Section 5(c)
  - iii) Voting delegates are asked to write the names of the candidates for whom they had an instructed vote. Discrepancy in the required number results in a spoiled ballot.
  - iv) The chair declares elected those candidates who receive the highest number of votes. The names of the successful candidates are to be announced in alphabetical order.
  - e. In the event of a tie involving the final position(s) of the required number, balloting shall continue until the numbers of candidates are elected. C&B PART XVI - Section 5(d) (ii)
- 10. When results of the election have been duly recorded, a motion is made to destroy the nomination forms and the ballots. The nominations and elections committee are then dissolved.
- 11. The newly elected officers are introduced by the outgoing past president.

PLEASE DO NOT FOLD THE BALLOT

RULES FOR ELECTION FOR
THE TORONTO DIOCESAN COUNCIL

1. It is requested that during the election process members pray in the silence of their own hearts for one another and for the League.
2. The Diocesan election is conducted according to Part XVI, section 5 of the Constitution and Bylaws (2013).
3. The president shall remain in the chair to preside over the convention, which is still in session. At the request of the president, the elections chairperson provides a brief overview of the election procedure and introduces the candidates for office.
4. A complete slate of candidates shall be posted at the commencement of elections.
5. The Voting delegates all vote at the same time. They will be seated in such a way as to ensure ballot secrecy.
6. The parish Voting Delegate carries an instructed vote on the FIRST ballot. If she does not have an instructed vote from the executive, she forfeits her privilege to vote on this and all subsequent ballots for that position. Part XVI, Section 5 (b). She has a free vote if her candidate has already been elected to a previous position.
7. Election shall be by ballot vote unless
  - a) there is only one candidate for an office or only the required number of candidates for the standing committees
  - b) the nomination forms indicate a clear majority for a candidate (candidates in the case of a plurality vote) in which case approval shall be by motion to declare the candidate(s) elected.
8. The regional chairs or designate will distribute the ballot slips to each voting delegate for completion.
9. The election of officers shall be by majority vote.
  - a) If a majority vote (more than half) has been obtained by nomination AND no voting delegate has been released from her instructed vote, the president shall declare the candidate elected.
  - b) If any voting delegate has been released from her instructed vote as a result of the withdrawal of a candidate or the removal of a candidate due to her election to another office, a first ballot shall be taken. If the first ballot produces a majority, then the president shall declare the candidate elected.
  - c) If no majority vote has been obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot is required. The Voting Delegates will be shown the results of the instructed vote.

- d) If a third ballot is required to obtain a majority, the Voting Delegates will be shown the results of the second ballot.
  - e) If three ballots fail to produce a majority vote, the candidate receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected.
  - f) In the event of a tie vote on the third ballot, a fourth ballot, using only the names of the tied candidates, shall be taken.
10. The election of standing committee chairpersons shall be by plurality vote.
- a) The elections chairperson announces the number of standing committee chairpersons required to be elected. Chairpersons are not elected to a specific standing committee.
  - b) If the nomination form indicates which candidates have the highest number of votes without a tie for the final position, AND no voting delegate has been released from her instructed vote, the president shall declare the candidates, in alphabetical order, elected.
  - c) If any voting delegate has been released from her instructed vote as a result of the withdrawal of a candidate or the removal of a candidate due to her election to another office, a first ballot shall be taken.
  - d) The five candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. In the event of a tie, further balloting shall continue until the required number of candidates is elected.
11. When the results of the election have been duly recorded, the nomination forms and ballots shall be destroyed, and the Elections Committee dissolved.

PLEASE DO NOT FOLD BALLOTS

Criteria for the mentoring award

Who is a mentor?

A mentor is an individual who:

- Responds to the needs of others
- Encourages the growth of individual members
- Encourages growth and renewal of the council by sharing her experiences and knowledge
- Companions' members in the League by sharing and nurturing
- Participates at meetings and lends moral support
- Welcomes the stranger with open arms and takes them under her wing

How to Nominate a Member

1. A completed nomination form must be submitted for each individual and each category: Category A – Parish Level and Category B – Diocesan and Auxiliary.
3. Either a council or an individual member may submit a nomination.
4. Submissions must be received by date determined by the chair of the committee.
5. Send submissions to: current name and address of the current Toronto Diocesan Past President/Historian.

Category A – Parish Level

All members of a parish council who meet the criteria are eligible for the Parish Level of the Patricia Beattie Memorial Mentoring Award.

Category B – Auxiliary Level

Members who went on to serve at various levels of the League (parish, regional, diocesan, provincial or national), and used their knowledge and experiences to educate and mentor at different levels of the League, are eligible for the Diocesan and Auxiliary level of the award.

Nomination Forms may be found on the Toronto Diocesan Website at <https://www.cwltoronto.ca>.

NOTE: A member that is currently serving on the Toronto Diocesan Executive or is currently a Regional Chair is not eligible for nomination.

2. In consultation with the President and Spiritual Development Chair, has the final responsibility for the approval of Eucharistic celebrations, prayer services and all readings for the Masses.
3. Has final responsibility that everything necessary for the Eucharistic celebrations has been provided and taken care of.
4. Prior to each Mass, shall:
  - a) Designate those priests who will concelebrate with him; and
  - b) Designate those priests who will assist in distributing Communion. The number shall be determined in conjunction with the ushers, one of whom will accompany each priest to his station.

Note: CWL inventory (held by the Spiritual Development Chair) contains the following:

- 1 Statue of Our Lady
- 6 Ciboria
- 38 Spiritual Advisor's stoles
- Book of Life
- Bible
- 2 cruets and finger bowl
- 2 crystal chalices
- 1 white altar cloth
- Crown and flower base for Our Lady's Statue and 2 pillows
- Candles and candleholders for altar and Our Lady's altar
- 1 small crucifix for altar

EUCCHARISTIC CELEBRATIONS AT ST. MICHAEL'S CATHEDRAL

CWL prepares and reads the Prayer of the Faithful and First Reading; also prepares and provides music (cantor-Cathedral usually provides accompanist).

Archbishop's staff looks after all other requirements.

Regional Mass Checklist

(Read the Regional Guidelines carefully before starting)

Have you:

- 1. Confirmed the date, time and place with the Regional Spiritual Advisor?
- 2. Requested permission from the Pastor for the Spiritual Advisor to celebrate the Eucharist in the host church?
- 3. Confirmed the Scripture Readings?
